Product Description

The Samsung Galaxy Note 8.0 was built to let you do incredible things even when on the go. Now it’s time to protect your investment. Wrap your Galaxy Note in protection while adding a touch of style with the Kensington Folio Case & Stand for Galaxy Note. Constructed of a remarkably convincing leather-inspired material, the Folio Case & Stand for Galaxy Note looks stylish and feels great in your hand. And since there’s nothing classy about fingerprints, the soft microfiber lined interior not only protects the Galaxy Note’s screen but also helps wipe away fingerprints and smudges. The Folio Case & Stand for Galaxy Note 8.0 is expertly crafted to maintain access to all of the Galaxy Note’s ports, S-Pen stylus and camera. So you’ll still be able to email, photograph, play games, annotate documents, draw, and capture ideas whenever and wherever they strike you. The multi-angle stand means you’ll always find the perfect position for comfort and productivity, whether you’ve got the Galaxy Note on a table or on your lap. And when you’re done doing amazing things, simply close the cover and loop the elastic band closure to keep your Galaxy Note and screen protected until the next big idea comes your way.
